

ECONOMIC ANALYSIS (OFF-CAMPUS) (Z074)

Graduate Certificate Program
College: Behavioral and Social Sciences

Abstract

The off-campus Graduate Certificate in Economic Analysis (Z074) consists of the first 5 courses in the Applied Economics Program (ECAO). Students can earn the graduate certificate "along the way" as they pursue the MS degree, or they can enroll in the graduate certificate program as a stand-alone 5-course graduate certificate program. Classes meet weeknights in Washington, DC.

Financial Assistance

The economics department does not offer fellowships or graduate assistantships to any of the students in the Z074 Graduate Certificate program. To be eligible to receive any type of Federal Student Financial Aid, the student must:

1. be a U.S. citizen, U.S. Permanent Resident, or other eligible non-citizen
2. register with the Selective Service Administration (unless exempt). Students are exempt if they are female, under 18, born before 1960, on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces, citizens of the Federated State of Micronesia or The Marshall Islands, or permanent residents of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands (Palau).
3. enroll at a college or university that participates in the Federal Student Financial Aid Programs. These programs include the Federal Pell Grants (Pell Grants), Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG), Federal Subsidized and Unsubsidized Direct Loans, Federal Perkins Loans, and Federal Work-Study (FWS).
4. be working toward a degree or certificate.
5. be making Satisfactory Academic Progress.
6. not owe a refund on any federal grant, must not have borrowed federal student loans in excess of annual or aggregate loan limits, and must not be in default on any federal student loan unless satisfactory payment arrangements have been made.

Some of our students also have their tuition paid, at least in part, by an employer or other 3rd parties.

The University's Financial Services Center provides Third Party Billing when the third party requires a bill from the university. More information about financial aid is available from the University of Maryland's Office of Student Financial Aid.

Visa Eligibility: This program is not eligible for I-20 or DS-2019 issuance by the University of Maryland.

The Economic Analysis (Z074) certificate program does not admit applicants with J1 visas, or applicants who would need the University of Maryland to sponsor an F1 student visa. But it does admit international applicants already in the US on visas that permit study (G4 and H4 visas, for example). G4 and H4 visa holders have the same application deadline as domestic applicants.
