

URBAN AGRICULTURE, POST-BACCALAUREATE CERTIFICATE (P.B.C.)

In this 12-credit certificate, students learn the skills required to maintain plants and beneficial insects within and around cities and about the urban ecosystem, policies, and plan

| Course                                     | Title                                       | Credits |
|--|---|---------|
| Required courses:                          |   |         |
| ENTM710                                    | Insect Biodiversity, Physiology and Ecology | 3       |
| ENTM740                                    | Organic Practices                           | 3       |
| or ENTM730                                 | Plant Diagnostics                           |         |
| Two additional courses chosen with advisor |   | 6       |
| Total Credits                              |   | 12      |