

INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND CONFLICT MANAGEMENT MINOR

2117 Chincoteague Hall
Phone: 301-314-7703
midcminfo@umd.edu
<https://idcm.umd.edu> (<https://idcm.umd.edu/>)

Program Director: John McCauley, Ph.D.

The minor in International Development and Conflict Management is a 16-credit, undergraduate program of instruction designed for students who aspire to gain theoretical understanding and practical skills necessary to address critical global concerns related to development and conflict – and at their intersection.

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis, and enrolled students begin the program in the fall semester. Students applying for the program must be entering their sophomore, junior, or senior year of undergraduate study. Applicants must be full-time students in good standing, with a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or better. Up to 70 students are accepted into the program each year.

For more information about the minor and access to application materials, please visit: <https://idcm.umd.edu> (<https://idcm.umd.edu/>).

REQUIREMENTS

Requirements for the minor include the following coursework:

Course	Title	Credits
Required Courses
GVPT354	International Development and Conflict Management	3
GVPT355	Capstone in International Conflict Management	3
GVPT356	Capstone in International Development	3
ELECTIVE	Global Perspectives Elective courses from approved list	3
METHODS	One research methodology course from approved list	3
GVPT357	IDCM Practicum Course (IDCM Practicum Course)	1
Total Credits		16

Note: Six credits (or two courses) can be double counted for your major and the minor. Classes must generally be completed after acceptance into the minor program, with the exception of the elective and methods requirements.

All courses used to satisfy the requirements of the minor must be completed with a grade of "C-" or better. Students must have a minimum 2.0 cumulative grade point average across all courses used to satisfy the minor requirements.